Préface.

La nouvelle édition que je présente, du Recueil de Marques, de Graesse, paraît sous une forme totalement modifiée. Quand, il y a quelque temps, les éditeurs me demandèrent de soigner la nouvelle édition de cet ouvrage, j'ai reconnu de suite, que tout en étant, incontestablement, le Manuel de marques céramiques le plus consulté du monde, il lui manquait, jusqu'ici, deux qualités essentielles: la base scientifique et la disposition claire et nette. Quant au défaut de clarté, tous ceux qui se sont servis des dernières éditions de l'ouvrage, l'auront constaté et regretté. Par suite de l'addition ininterrompue de nouvelles marques aux groupements des marques établies depuis longtemps, et difficiles à changer, chaque page présentait finalement une image tellement embrouillée, qu'il fallait être doué d'une patience peu ordinaire pour démêler une certaine marque. Jusqu'à présent, cette difficulté n'avait été levée par aucun index.

En ce qui concerne la valeur scientifique, elle était absolument insuffisante, en tant qu'elle ne renseignait l'origine, la source, d'aucune des marques reproduites, de sorte que les recherches devinrent impossibles et que les personnes qui consultaient l'ouvrage, furent réduites à s'en rapporter absolument à l'appréciation de l'auteur.

En ces conditions, il me semblait de mon devoir, de remédier à ces deux maux et de soumettre l'ouvrage entier à un nouveau et minutieux contrôle, afin d'en éliminer les erreurs qui s'y étaient glissées au cours des temps; enfin, et avant tout, de faire place aux derniers résultats des recherches particulièrement animées, de nos jours dans le domaine de la céramique. L'édition présente montrera, à quel degré j'y ai réussi. Je crois cependant utile de faire remarquer, que le peu de temps qui me restait pour ce travail, ne m'a pas permis de traiter également bien toutes les sections de l'ouvrage. Pour faciliter les recherches des lecteurs, j'a dû distinguer entre les matières, suivant leur importance.

C'est ainsi que l'origine de toutes les marques a été établie, sauf celles du Japon, innombrables comme on sait, et dont je ne pouvais citer que quelques exemples. Ceux, qui voudront s'adonner à des études sérieuses en ce domaine, devront consulter l'excellent ouvrage de Morse, Catalogue of Japanese Pottery (Museum of fine arts, Boston 1897) où ils trouveront ces marques. Je dois aussi faire remarquer, qu'on ne peut attendre la perfection en tout, d'un ouvrage devant servir de manuel, limité à certaines dimensions. Cela s'applique tout particulièrement aux marques de notre époque, qui formeraient, à elles seules, un volume aussi gros que le présent ouvrage, et dont je n'ai pu donner que des exemples plus ou moins choisis au hasard.

Le fait est, que nous ne possédons pas encore de recueil de marques céramiques, complet, et que nous n'en aurons pas de si tôt.

D'autre part, toutes les marques des parties refondues de l'ouvrage ont été classées d'après des systèmes aussi clairs que possibles, sauf une partie des majoliques, défaut, qui ne se fera pas beaucoup sentir, vu le nombre assez restreint des collectionneurs de majoliques. La partie Porcelaines et celle des Fayences et grès allemands, ont été totalement refondues; de plus, nous avons ajouté une classification, par ordre alphabétique, des marques à lettres, sans laquelle un ouvrage de ce genre, est à peu près inutile. Enfin, quant aux indications sur l'origine des différentes marques reproduites à l'annexe, nous avons observé le principe de ne citer, pour ce qui est des pièces figurant aux musées ou autres endroits semblables, que les lieux où elles se trouvent, et de renvoyer, pour toutes les autres, aux ouvrages qui ont été les premiers à faire connaître les titres des marques. Seul, pour les marques qui reviennent constamment, les marques de fabrique proprement dites, une justification spéciale n'a pas été fournie, mais leur fréquence a été signalée.

Par conséquent, l'origine des marques, pour lesquelles toute justification manque, n'a pu être établie; l'auteur saura gré à ceux des lecteurs de cet ouvrage, qui seraient en mesure de lui fournir sur l'origine de ces marques des indications permettant d'en prouver l'authenticité de façon scientifique, comme aussi à toutes les personnes qui voudront bien appeler son attention sur les erreurs et omissions, qui ont pu lui échapper par suite du peu de temps, dont il disposait pour remanier la présente édition. Il exprime ici ses vifs remerciements à tous ceux sans l'aide desquels il lui eut été impossible de terminer son travail aussi rapidement; tout particulièrement, à Messieurs von Falke, dir. à Berlin; Brinckmann, dir. à Hambourg; Kurzwelly et Graul, dir. à Leipzig; Lenz, dir. à Zurich; Riesebieter procureur de l'Etat; professeur Scherer, à Brunsvick; et Stöhr, architecte à Würzbourg.

Pour la première fois, l'essai a été fait, de faire paraître aussi en langue allemande, cet ouvrage, qui jusqu' à présent n'a été rédigé qu'en langue française. Les difficultés qui ont accompagné cette innovation, excuseront les défauts et les inconvénients assez nombreuses. qu'on y remarquera, mais qui ne se renouvelleront pas, aux éditions ultérieures, Pour terminer, un avis à l'adresse de ceux qui commencent à collectionner des objets céramiques: Puisqu'on imite des objets entiers, il est évident qu'on peut aussi falsifier des marques; la présence de la marque recherchée dans cet ouvrage, ne suffit donc pas encore pour en garantir l'authenticité.

Porcelaine de Chine.

227/29. Marques Impériales (Nien-haos).

Depuis l'époque de la dynastie Ming (1366—1644) jusqu'à nos jours, l'usage s'est répandu fréquemment de munir les porcelaines (presque toujours au fond, plus rarement à des endroits dissimulés sur les parois) de marques indiquant le nom de l'empereur chinois sous le règne duquel elles ont été fabriquées. Ces marques se composent presque toujours de six signes chinois, plus rarement de quatre, disposés généralement en deux colonnes, beaucoup plus rarement sur une ligne horizontale (voir la planche 229, Nr. 6). Elles doivent être lues en commençant à droite et en haut, puis à gauche, également de haut en bas. La signification de la marque de la planche 227, No. 2 est par exemple la suivante:

tê	Ta
5	2
nien	Ming
6	3
chi	Siouen

Ta Ming Siouen en tê nien chi, c'est-à-dire: grande Ming Siouen tê période fabriquée = fabriquée pendant la période Siouen-tê de la grande Ming (dynastie).

Lorsque la marque se trouve sur une ligne horizontale, elle se lit de droite à gauche; lorsqu'elle ne contient que 4 signes, ce sont toujours les deux premiers qui manquent.

Pour déterminer à l'aide de ces marques l'époque à laquelle remonte la pièce qui les porte il suffit donc de déterminer la signification du troisième et du quatrième signe (ou du premier et du deuxième).

229. Pendant la dynastie Thsing (1644 jusqu'à nos jours) on rencontre encore, en plus des marques précédentes, celles qu'on appelle les marques de sceau, qui se lisent de la même façon que les premières.

Toutes les marques de sceau antérieures à cette époque (par exemple la marque de gauche et en haut de la planche 229, qui indique le règne de l'empereur Ming Siouen-té) appartiennent à une date différente de celle qu'elles indiquent; à la suite d'une mauvaise habitude très répandue en Chine elles ont été apposées plus tard sur des porcelaines plus récentes, c'est-à-dire de la dynastie des Thsings.

A droite et en haut: Marque de l'empereur Joung-lo (1403—1425) en écriture antique (London, Brit. Mus.).

Aucune des marques impériales n'indique avec une certitude complète que la pièce de porcelaine qui la porte date réellement de l'époque indiquée par cette marque, ni même que cette pièce provient bien de la Chine. A toutes les époques de pareilles marques ont été apposées en Chine sur des porcelaines plus récentes. Elles ont aussi été souvent contrefaites au Japon et même en Europe.

230. Marques de fabrique ou de destination (marques de halles).

On ne possède encore aucun renseignement précis sur ces différentes marques; elles désignent en partie des ateliers, en partie des magasins de porcelaine, et en partie aussi les endroits auxquels les porcelaines étaient destinées, par exemple la halle d'un mandarin, le pavillon d'un empereur, etc.

Les marques reproduites ici ne peuvent être considérées que comme quelques exemples caractéristiques:

1: Bushell: Maison de la Bienveillance et de l'Harmonie. 2: Bushell: fabriquée dans la galerie du plus haut respect (époque de l'empereur Kien-long, 1735—1795)? 3: Bushell: fabriquée dans la galerie de Shun-tih (exercice de vertu. Époque de l'empereur Tao-kwang 1821—1851)? 4: Franks: *Ancienne fabrication dans la galerie Shun-tih (exercice de la vertu. Eine jede dieser Abteilungen bringt bis zu mehreren Hundert Marken, die auf 38 Tafeln gesammelt sind.
Der Preis von M. 8.— für dieses umfassende Werk ist in Anbetracht der Reichhaltigkeit seines Inhalts so minimal, daß wir die Überzeugung haben, das Buch bald in den Bibliotheken aller Kunstliebhaber, Sammler und Kunstgelehrten finden zu können.

Graesses „Guide de l'amateur d'objets d'art et de curiosités“, von welchem 1877 die II. Auflage erschien, war seit langen Jahren vollständig vergriffen, und es gelang nur selten, auf dem Büchermarkte ein Exemplar zu finden.

Da jedoch das Interesse für das Werk von Jahr zu Jahr stieg, die Anfragen nach einer Neuauflage sich fortgesetzt mehrten, entschloß sich die unterzeichnete Verlagsbuchhandlung, eine Neubearbeitung

in deutscher Sprache

vornehmen zu lassen.

In dieser deutschen Ausgabe ist das vorhandene Material gesichtet, Unnötiges gestrichen und eine für den einzelnen fast unübersehbare Menge authentischer Marken hinzugefügt, so daß das Buch jeden Sammler und Liebhaber von Antiquitäten und Kuriositäten befriedigen wird.

Urteile der Fachpresse:

Der Kunstmarkt: . . . Die jetzige Auflage ist so wesentlich verbessert, daß sie füglich als ein neues Werk gelten darf, das den Interessenten wärmstens empfohlen werden kann . . . Die 38 Tafeln enthalten an 2000 Marken.

Kunst und Handwerk. Eine zweifellos sehr mühselige Arbeit haben wir hier vor uns, eine Arbeit, die nur einwandfrei beurteilt werden kann, wenn man jahrelang als Sammler, Forscher, Museumsvorstand usw. dieses Nachschlagewerk auf seine Brauchbarkeit erprobt . . .

Daheim. Der Inhalt ist erstaunlich reichhaltig, und viele Stichproben haben die Zuverlässigkeit der Angaben bestätigt. Behandelt werden: Skulpturen, Elfenbein, Glyptik, Medaillen, Bronzen usw. Jeder Abschnitt besteht aus einer knappen historisch-technischen Einleitung aus dem Verzeichnis der Meister und aus Markentafeln.

Edelmetall-Industrie. Die Wegweiser der Geschichte des Kunstgewerbes und der Kleinkunst sind bekanntlich die Marken und Meisterzeichen, bei der Gold- und Silberschmiedekunst besonders auch die Beschauzeichen. Wer sie zu lesen und zu deuten vermag, dem erschließt sich ein herrliches Gebiet, das den Liebhaber in anregendster Weise fesselt und immer tiefer in seinen Bannkreis zieht. Um aber den Weg zu diesem Gebiete zu finden, bedarf es einer führenden Hand und einer Anleitung zu einem systematischen Vorgehen. Ein solcher Führer liegt vor mir, der in seiner Reichhaltigkeit und Übersichtlichkeit fast einzig dasteht. Jedem Freund der Geschichte unseres Kunstgewerbes und der Kleinkunst überhaupt kann die Anschaffung dieses trefflichen Buches nur dringend genug angeraten werden.

Zeitschrift für Sammler, Göttingen. Es ist hier ein ungeheurer Stoff in einem sehr handlichen Bande ungemein übersichtlich vereinigt. Angesichts dieser so glücklich gelösten Riesenarbeit müssen wir dem Fleiß und der Kenntnis des Verfassers unsere höchste Bewunderung zollen. Solche Handbücher sind wahre Schätze für den Sammler!

Schlesische Zeitung. Ein schätzenswertes Hilfsbuch, wie es Kunstsammlern bestimmter Kategorien seit langem fehlte, ist der soeben erschienene usw.

Der Kenner. Neben kurzen, übersichtlichen, die wissenswertesten Punkte berührenden Abhandlungen über die einzelnen Kunstzweige ist jedem Kapitel ein ausführliches Künstlerverzeichnis und im Anhang eine solche Fülle von Marken und Monogrammen beigelegt, daß selbst der verwöhnteste Sammler befriedigt sein wird. Wir können das nützliche Buch allen Sammlern und Freunden alter Kunst aufs beste empfehlen.
